"Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me.

You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Matthew 16:23

This scene likely unfolds in or near Caesarea Philippi, a Gentile region steeped in pagan worship. There, at the mouth of a cave long associated with the entrance to the netherworld—believed by some pagans to be the very gate of Hades—Jesus had just questioned His disciples: "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" and then more directly, "But who do you say that I am?" (cf. Matthew 16:13–15). Peter, speaking with conviction on behalf of the Twelve, boldly proclaimed, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16). Jesus responded by declaring him "Peter," the rock upon which He would build His Church, promising that "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Just moments later, Jesus issues one of the strongest rebukes recorded in the Gospels: "Get behind me, Satan!" The same Peter who had just spoken divine truth now speaks human fear and shortsightedness. In trying to dissuade Jesus from His suffering and death, Peter unknowingly opposes the very mission of the Messiah. Jesus calls this mindset not merely a mistake, but a diabolical temptation—echoing the same temptation He faced in the desert, when Satan sought to lure Him away from the Cross with promises of worldly glory.

What a stark contrast. Peter goes from being the rock of faith to an obstacle in the Lord's path. But why was Jesus so severe in His response? Because the stakes were eternal. The Cross is not optional. It is the means of salvation—not just for Jesus, but for all who would follow Him. To think otherwise, even with good intention, is to prefer human comfort over divine wisdom. Peter's protest reflects a natural aversion to suffering, but Jesus exposes it for what it truly is: a stumbling block to the will of the Father.

This dramatic Gospel scene is recorded for a reason. By calling Peter "Satan," Jesus wanted to warn him—and us—of the real and ever-present danger of rejecting the way of the Cross. Like Peter, we can easily fall into the trap of wishful thinking and misguided compassion by saying about ourselves or those close to us, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen..." We are saying, in essence: "Lord, please make sure that neither I nor anyone I love ever has to suffer!" But such a prayer, though well-meaning, is clearly mistaken, and Jesus wants that point to be clearly understood.

Peter was troubled because "Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised." But all that Jesus revealed about His suffering was good—very good. (continued on page 3)

Patience: a moral virtue and a fruit of the Holy Spirit linked to fortitude. Helps us grow in holiness!

Though His suffering was inflicted by the sins of others, His free and loving embrace of that suffering was the greatest act of love the world has ever known. Peter was blinded to this truth. He could not yet see beyond the horror of suffering to the divine good that would come through Jesus' sacrificial embrace of it.

Reflect today on Peter's and Jesus' words: "God forbid, Lord!" and "Get behind me, Satan!" In this exchange, Jesus is also speaking to each of us, saying, "Never run from the Cross!" We must never flee from a selfless and sacrificial embrace of suffering, even when that suffering is unjust. God can and will transform all freely embraced suffering into a means of His eternal glory and our sanctification. With our Lord, reject the evil one's false empathy. Reject the lie that suffering is meaningless. Choose instead to lay down your life in love with Christ, and in doing so, you will rise with Him, victorious over every sin and diabolical lie, overcoming even the sufferings of this life through your free and faithful embrace.

My compassionate Lord, Your firm rebuke of Peter was direct, powerful, and loving. Rather than offering false comfort or misleading empathy, You spoke a hard truth to awaken Peter—and all of us—to the spiritual necessity of the Cross. Grant me the grace, dear Lord, to say "Yes" to the suffering I must face. May I embrace it not with fear or resistance, but with a heart filled with Your love and unwavering courage. Jesus, I trust in You.

22nd Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life?" - Mt 16:24b-26

CATHERINE of SIENA INSTITUTE

Have you ever gotten a gift from someone and not opened it? Most of us are very excited and eager to open any gift that we receive. Can you imagine just putting a gift from someone on a shelf...and ignoring it? We are all given special gifts from God at our Baptism that are called charisms. If we don't use our charisms, it is like receiving a gift and not opening it. Many people go through their lives not using their God-given gifts because they don't know what they are.

How do we discover our charisms?

The Called & Gifted Program from the Catherine of Siena Institute is a way to discover your charisms. The program describes the charisms and explains how they are revealed in our lives. Then through prayer, practice, and small group discernment, you determine what charism is at work in your life.

All of us were created by God to accomplish a certain Mission on this earth. Discovering our charisms helps us to be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ on earth, and become who God created us to be.

Imagine, all the good things that would happen in our parish, community, and the world if people young and old were aware of, and using their charisms. Everyone is encouraged to take part in this program to discern your charisms. Do not leave these gifts of God's Holy Spirit unopened! For more information or to register, call Darby Bradley at 320-339-0686 or Rose Suchy at 320-766-
