Greetings,

Happy Easter! He is Risen; Alleluia! The Church solemnly celebrates the Resurrection for eight straight days. The Resurrection that we celebrate during the Easter Season shows God's heart and desire for us. Scripture says, "Jesus died and rose so we may rise with Him." What a beautiful thought!

Today we also celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Divine Mercy Sunday is intricately connected to the Easter Message. In today's gospel we hear about St. Thomas, nicknamed "Doubting Thomas". In the Gospel, St. Thomas, at first, refuses to believe that Jesus rose from the dead. He was, after all, just brutally tortured and murdered, who could blame him? But Jesus had risen, and He approaches St. Thomas and invited him to touch His wounds, and said, "do not be disbelieving (doubting) but believe."

A greater wound to the Heart of the Lord (which He often spoke about in His dialogues with Saint Maria Faustina) is our lack of trust or belief in His unfathomable Divine Mercy. St. Faustina said, "When a soul fears getting close to the Lord Jesus after a fall, then it wounds the Sacred Heart of Jesus horribly, for the lack of trust hurts Him more than the most terrible sins."

The Image of Divine Mercy reminds us that the Lord continues to come looking for us in our sin but often we prefer to hide because we are afraid. But through the Passion of Jesus on Good Friday, the true extent of the mercy of God becomes visible. Jesus dies so we can be forgiven, wholly and completely. Christ, the Good Shepherd, goes looking for the lost, wounded sheep but our distorted image of God wounds us into thinking that our sin is too revolting to God, so therefore He surely must reject us.

As a result of this lack of understanding, we too, like the Apostles, can lock ourselves into our own upper room out of fear of God. We hide ourselves, yet God does not hide from us. St Thomas reminds us that the Merciful Lord can still enter into the "locked room" of our hearts. Like St. Thomas, it is Jesus who comes to us. He understands our doubts and fears. But all His words and all His actions should lead us to believe that Jesus is genuine when He tells us to trust in His Merciful Love.

So, if we are hiding from unconfessed sins or know of someone who is hiding from the graces of God's Church, let us pray, so that through God's Divine Mercy, "ALL" souls may be saved.

God Bless You All,

Fr. LeRoy

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER READINGS:

First Reading:

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common.

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting. Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world.

Gospel:

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

Gospel Meditation:

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Written in the Wounds

For all the condemnation Thomas the Doubter has received in 2000 years of homilies, I think there's something to admire in him.

Thomas is not unique. We all waver at some point, overcome by hesitation, distracted by the clamor of the world which seeks at every turn to shout above the whisper of the divine.

Thomas knows what he saw on Good Friday: his friend nailed to a cross, a sword driven through his body. He saw the blood and the water. He saw these things with his own eyes, eyes given to him by God, eyes which have never failed him before. And God doesn't ask us to suspend reality to believe in Him. He only asks us to be discerning about how that reality is interpreted in our hearts.

Thomas knows the man before him is either a fraud, preying on the hopes and anxieties of the traumatized disciples, or he is the Christ, the Savior of the world, accomplisher of impossible things. But where to look, to tell the difference?

Satan once appeared to the great mystic saint, Teresa of Avila, disguised as Jesus. She knew instantly that he was a fraud. Enraged, he demanded to know where his deception had failed. "You have no wounds," she told him simply.

Could we have accepted a savior who did not bleed? I don't think we could, because sooner or later, we would all stand before him and say, "Here is where the world hurt me. Here, and here, and here. What about you?" Christ can point to his hands, his feet, his side. "Here, and here, and here," he can say. "And I overcame them all."

It's the wounds, you see. The truth is in the wounds.

Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" — John 20:28

FROM THE DIOCESE

Stewardship as a Way of Life: "The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own..." - Acts 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money - these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.

Bishop's Annual Appeal 2024: Thank you to those who have already supported diocesan ministries through the Appeal. The Bishop's Annual Appeal for 2024 has raised total cash and pledges of $894,706 toward our goal of $1,450,000 (63.91%). This was made possible through the generous donations of 5,341 people throughout the 16 counties of our diocese. Will you help these ministries meet their funding needs? Visit www.stcdio.org/annualappeal.

Pope Francis April Intention:

For the role of women

We pray that the dignity and immense value of women be recognized in every culture, and for the end of discrimination that they experience in different parts of the world.

A Vocation View:

Despite our lack of faith, Christ still calls and gives the strength to respond. Bring your questions to Him, that He might answer your doubts with His gentle, but persistent love. (John 20:19-31)
